

QUE-5. What is the purpose continue statement in python?

- ⇒ The continue statement in Python is used to skip the rest of the code inside a loop for the current iteration and jump to the next iteration. It is often used when a certain condition is met, and you want to skip the remaining code in the loop and move on to the next iteration.